

Civil Procedure in Hong Kong: Recent Cases

by
Mr. Clemence Yeung,
Barrister-at-Law

Mr. Yeung was called to the Bar in 1997. Prior to that he was admitted as a solicitor in England and Wales and in Hong Kong and practised as a solicitor in the litigation department of an international firm. He was a contributor to Halsbury's Laws of Hong Kong Volume 18(1) Maritime Law (Butterworths) and has authored a book on the law of unjust enrichment in Hong Kong.

The course looks at the cases on civil procedure in about the last 6 months, covering topics such as amendment of pleadings, striking out witness statements, sanctioned payments, joinder of parties, discovery, interrogatories and bankers' books orders. It targets recent practitioners in civil litigation, especially practitioners who have an interest in exercising their rights of audience before the civil courts and are keen to consider dicta concerned with late applications, consideration of unpleaded claims, challenging inferences and judgmental conclusions drawn by first instance courts, and the rule against self-incrimination.
