Prof. Steven Gallagher

Associate Professor of Practice in Law, Associate Dean (Teaching & Learning),
The Faculty of Law, The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Steven Gallagher was awarded a first class LL.B. He was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 2006. Steven has taught Equity and Trusts, Land Law and Company Law to undergraduates and International Corporate Liquidation and International Corporate Governance to postgraduates in England and Hong Kong. Steven teaches the Equity and Trusts courses for undergraduate students, the Principles of Equity and Trusts course on the Juris Doctor course and, in 2013, introduced the Principles of Cultural Heritage Law course to the LLM programme at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. Steven has presented continuing professional development courses for solicitors in Hong Kong on many topics associated with equity. Steven's research interests include equity and the law of trusts, cultural heritage law and legal history.

This 3-hour seminar will provide an introduction to the doctrines, defences and remedies that have been developed in equity to deal with deficiencies in the common law. The seminar will consider the purpose of equity within the common law, the guiding principles of equity and the development of equitable doctrines such as undue influence and proprietary estoppel. The limits of equitable relief will be considered with reference to equity's darling and other defences in equity. The seminar will conclude with consideration of the development of equitable remedies.

Some of the topics considered in this seminar will be:

- The Maxims of Equity
- General principles of when equity may be available
- Guiding principles in awarding remedies
- The Traditional Doctrines of Equity
- Undue Influence
- Developments of Estoppel in Equity
- Defences Available in Equity
- Equitable Remedies
- Account and equitable compensation
- Injunction
- Specific Performance
