

Trustees and Fiduciaries: Liability for and Defences to Claims for Breach of Trust and Breach of Fiduciary Duty

by

Prof. Steven Gallagher,
Associate Professor of Practice in Law,
Associate Dean (Teaching & Learning),
The Faculty of Law,
The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Steven Gallagher was awarded a first class LL.B. He was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 2006. Steven has taught Equity and Trusts, Land Law and Company Law to undergraduates and International Corporate Liquidation and International Corporate Governance to postgraduates in England and Hong Kong. Steven teaches the Equity and Trusts courses for undergraduate students, the Principles of Equity and Trusts course on the Juris Doctor course and, in 2013, introduced the Principles of Cultural Heritage Law course to the LLM programme at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. Steven has presented continuing professional development courses for solicitors in Hong Kong on many topics associated with equity. Steven's research interests include equity and the law of trusts, cultural heritage law and legal history.

This 3-hour seminar will consider the nature of trusteeship and the fiduciary obligations of trustees and fiduciaries. The traditional categories of fiduciary relationship and obligation will be discussed and recent developments in judicial identification of fiduciary relationships. The remedies available for breach of trust and breach of fiduciary obligations will be considered including recent guidance on the remedies of account and the award of equitable compensation. The seminar will conclude with discussion of defences that may be available to claims for liability for breach of trust and breach of fiduciary duty.

Some of the topics considered in this seminar include:

- The nature of trusteeship;
- Becoming a trustee (and perhaps not knowing that you are);
- Breach of trust;
- The fiduciary;
- Becoming a fiduciary (and perhaps not knowing that you are);
